A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

At that time;

Jesus said to his disciples,
"Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning,
And be like men who are waiting for their master
To come home from the marriage feast,
So that they may open to him at once
When he comes and knocks,
Blessed are those servants
Whom the master finds awake when he comes;
Truly, I say to you,
He will put on his apron and have them sit at table,
And he will come and serve them.
If he comes in the second watch, or in the third,
And finds them so,
Blessed are those servants!
But know this,
That if the householder had known
At what hour the thief was coming,
He would have been awake
And would not have left his house to be broken into,
You also must be ready;
For the son of man is coming at an hour you do not expect"

The Gospel of the Lord.

Revelations 14:13

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord;
Let them rest from their labours,
For their deeds go with them. V

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF WISDOM

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God,
And no torment will ever touch them,
In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
And their departure was thought to be an affliction,
And their going from us to be their destruction;
But they are at peace.
For though in the sight of men they were punished,
Their hope is full of immortality.
Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good,
Because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
Like gold in the furnace he tried them,
And like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them,
In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
And will run like sparks through the stubble,
They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
And the Lord will reign over them for ever.
Those who trust in him will understand truth,
And the faithful will abide with him in love,
Because grace and mercy are upon his elect.

The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALMS

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want,
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
No evil would I fear, for you are with me,

The LORD is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want,
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose,
Near restful waters he 'leads me;
He revive my soul,
He guides me along the right path,
For the sake of his name R

Though I should walk in the valley of the shadow of death,
No evil would I fear, for you are with me,
Your crook and your staff will give me comfort. R

You have prepared a table before me
In the sight of my foes,
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing . R

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life,
In the LORD'S own house shall I dwell
For length of days unending. R

A READING FROM THE LETTER OF SAINT PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Brethren; Do you not know
That all of us who have been baptised into Christ Jesus
Were baptised into his death?
We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death,
So that as Christ was raised from the dead
By the glory of the Father,
We too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his,
We shall certainly be united with him
In a resurrection like his.
We know that our former man was crucified with him
So that the sinful body might be destroyed,
And we might no longer be enslaved to sin.
For he who has died is freed from sin.
But if we have died with Christ,
We believe that we shall also live with him.
For we know that Christ being raised from the dead
Will never die again;
Death no longer has dominion over him

The word of the Lord.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord;
Let them rest from their labours,
For their deeds go with them. V

Tribute

Adieu my Husband (Mrs. Helen Adoyi)

I was most devastated by your passing; I still am. I find myself reminiscing on moments from our lives. You told me a few weeks before your passing that I should pray for you to get better so that we could start all over again. You asked my forgiveness for the times you had hurt me and I forgave you, even before you made the request. I thought we would live long enough to see our grandchildren together and I looked forward to this but in spite of my prayers, God had other plans. I still believe that you were not meant to die at this time but whatever reason, human or otherwise that brought about your physical demise, I am pleased to know that God's judgment awaits everyone. At times when I think I am strong enough, I find myself overwhelmed by grief. I truly didn't know what to expect and didn't know it would be this way but every now and then I find solace in God's word. I know that in all things I give God thanks and I am confident in his will. Your love for your children and I will always be treasured. I am comforted by knowing that you are in heavenly bliss. You are greatly missed.

Rest on Mr. Jolly fellow

Rest on Mr. Guy

Rest on Maddy A.

Much Too Painful (Amanda Ene Adoyi)

I have been staring at the cursor on the laptop you gave me blink for a long time and have been unable to type a word. This tribute is expected of me and so I have to say something when in reality I am at a loss for words; so much that I wish my feelings could express itself directly on paper.

I have been on a rollercoaster of emotions. I have been riddled with questions for God, hate for the unseen and hope in the afterlife. I have eyed my own life suspiciously. I have wondered how an enigmatic, charismatic, intelligent and kind person like you could leave this world so soon. You have always been and continue to be my idol, the biggest role model I have ever had and I regret the number of times I failed to tell you this; I am convinced I should have let you know how much you inspired me much more than I did.

God knows best. I had so much faith in your recovery. When God decided that was not to be the case, I struggled initially but I have come to believe in his mercy. You are in the glory of heaven and I am happy that I would meet you again. Rest in peace daddy. I miss you so much.

To Daddy (Dr. Kevin Adah Adoyi)

I have looked at this empty page for the longest time

Not so much for a lack of words to say but the sheer density of emotions have overwhelmed me to writers block.

I dreaded this moment. It was looming but I had unwavering faith in your complete recovery. I denounced all science and logic but death dealt me a blow. Death dealt me a heavy blow! A heavy excruciating discourteous blow!! They say it will ease with time. Perhaps, so... I gave all I had and was prepared to give my breath if it would bring you back.

Now I take comfort in the life you lived... a life of academic achievements, professional success, and provider per excellence. I take comfort in knowing my dad is no longer in pain. That the suffering you had to endure in the tail end is no more. "Jesus! Jesus!" you always called out to Him and He has accepted you in one of many rooms in His Fathers mansion.

I am grateful to you for everything. Our joy our laughter, our sadness, our mistakes, our quarrels, have morphed me into the man I am- a man on a mission to restore and continue your legacy. Your 'hero', 'Adah o m'einyinyi' will forever have you in his heart.

I lost my Dad but only in body not in spirit.

I cherish your final words... they are my beam of hope.

Until we meet again, may your gentle soul rest in peace.

Goodnight Daddy (Evans Abah Adoyi)

Daddy you have left us with what I feel are questions unanswered, stones unturned, hearts in sorrow and grief. The pain and sorrow I watched Mummy go through would scar me forever. It feels like you were taken from us after a tug-of-war. Your earthly presence isn't here to protect or guide me anymore, and instead of a legacy of your greatness, I find myself lost in deep despair, because of the circumstances of your passing; the long-fought battle you were strong enough to face until the very end. You fought much longer than you were supposed to, and I love you for that.

I love you for the pep-talk and advise I would receive while you took me to school when I was a child. Your guidance was so powerful that even in sickness you told me "I won't make it, love your siblings. Don't be at war with them." I had an angry reaction to that, taking it as an indication of surrender. I love you for how you would show boldness when dealing with issues and still find time to be your jovial, fun-loving self. I love you for your excellent handwriting, your superb diction. I love you for your organization and preparedness for every situation. I love you for the courage in the first place, to set out from a small community of Owukpa to build a living that would impact so many lives along the way.

It was all the more depressing to witness such a capable, exceptional mind deteriorate more and more.

There were moments of conflict- I know that all too well, but they are meaningless on the basis of one of the last things you said to me despite your condition; "I love you too".

With these dreams and tears that present themselves from time to time, what I know is constant is your never-ending love for us that we can now experience from your new plane of existence.

To your earthly presence I say Goodnight Daddy. To you I say pray for us, bless every phase of our lives, every endeavor we have. Till we meet again.

Nnedi Nnamdi-Nwaeze

You fought so much to stay alive Sir; your love for your family shone so bright that even though I knew you for a short while I admired your generosity, your love for life and your intelligence.

Heaven has gained a beautiful soul. Rest in Peace Sir, till we meet to part no more. If you could read this just know its "Olive" writing and there would be no one to call me that anymore.
